PINE ROOT FARM & MARKET
ROUTE 113, STEEP FALLS, ME • 207-272-2257

It's time to sign up for this year's Farm Share Program!

It's very similar to the CSA concept, but is designed to be simpler and more convenient...

Here's how it works:

By purchasing a Farm Share you are giving the farm much needed start-up funds in the lean months of spring, and in return your family enjoys a 10% discount on local, fresh produce and products from a trusted source.

FOR EXAMPLE:
Mrs. Peppers buys a $90 farm share in the Spring, and the farmer credits her account $100. Mrs. Peppers can then shop at the farm stand all season long, any day of the week, for whatever she wants and the farmer records it on her account. She can recharge her account at any time, and at the end of the season any unused value will be put towards our Prescriptions for Produce Program to help feed Mr. Sweet Pea and his family next door.

Maine Senior Farm Shares available NOW!

FMI or to sign up online, visit our website:
pinerootfarm.com

FREE Cut Your Own Flowers included!

OBITUARY

David Bucknell

HIRAM - David Bucknell, 71, passed away on March 24, 2025, with his family by his side at home, after a short battle with Pancreatic Cancer. He was born in Portland, Maine on August 19, 1953, a son of the late George and Charmaine Bucknell. He built his home in Hiram in 1978 where he raised his family.

During his high school years, he loved playing basketball, soccer and baseball. After graduating from Sacopee Valley High School, he went on to College in Miami to pursue his love of baseball. He came home and worked for Co-Hi Orchards, from there he became the Road Commissioner for the Town of Hiram.

He loved logging his property, which he was still doing until he got sick. He loved his yearly trips to Mexico, and the Dominican Republic with his wife. He enjoyed the cookouts and the times he had with his children and grandchildren. His biggest love was going to Ragged Lake with Gary Taylor, Pete Darling and Jeff Colby, along with many more, and deer hunting for the month of November. He also loved to trap and Coon hunt.

He predeceased by brothers Randy and George (Stubby) Bucknell Jr.; and sister, Cynthia Durnells.

OBITUARY

Allan Neal Pitts

STANDISH - Allan Neal Pitts, 74, found peace after his battle against cancer on March 22, 2025, surrounded by his loving family. Born in Portland, Maine, on September 3, 1950, to Neal and Arlene (Whitehouse) Pitts, Allan spent his life proving that adventure, music, and a well-timed joke could get you through just about anything.

Growing up on the homestead in Limington, Allan graduated from Bonny Eagle High School in 1968, only to be drafted into the US Army in 1969 during the Vietnam conflict—because apparently, Uncle Sam had other plans. He later attended Casco Bay College for Business Studies but went on to work as a truck driver and sales delivery man, in which he found his niche. He was a great driver and always willing to be the point man.

He was a proud and current member of the Loyal Order of the Moose Lodge in Scarborough at the time of his passing and had also been a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Allan had a knack for turning everyday activities into grand adventures. He spent many weekends canoeing, camping, and generally avoiding anything resembling a dull moment. He loved hitting the open road on his bike, dominating a game of pool or cribbage, and engaging in deep philosophical discussions—whether you were ready for one or not. He passed on skills in music, mechanics, driving, and carpentry to his children, ensuring that at least some of his knowledge (and probably his stubbornness and attention to detail) would live on. His guitar was a near-constant companion, and if there was music and good company, Allan was in his element.

Predeceased by his parents, Allan leaves behind his brother, Marvin; as well as his children, Laura (Ken) Fish of Steep Falls, Justin (Abby) Pitts of Limington, and Cortney (Brad) Schwartz of New Brunswick, Canada. His face lit up when he spoke of his eight grandchildren, Broden and Kerrigan Fish, Olivia, Everly, and Maire Pitts, Logan, Camden, and Benton Schwartz; plus one great-grandchild, Beckett Fish, who will no doubt inherit some of his humor and storytelling flair. Allan had many nieces and nephews as well. He loved you all.

Per Allan's request (and possibly to avoid anyone making a fuss over him), there will be no formal service. Instead, a celebration of his life will be held at a later date, where stories will be told, laughs will be had, and his sometimes crazy but undeniably remarkable life will be properly honored.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations be made to the Loyal Order of the Moose Lodge in Allan's memory.

Rest easy, Dad, Gramps, and brother. Your journey was one-of-a-kind, and the echoes of your life and laughter will continue to ripple through all who had the privilege of knowing you.

OBITUARY

Douglas Maxwell Mixer

Douglas "Doug" Maxwell Mixer, 75, of Porter, M.E., passed away peacefully on March 27, 2025, at Memorial Hospital in North Conway, N.H., surrounded by his family. Doug was born on May 4, 1949 in Wolfeboro, N.H., the eldest of 4 children of the late John and Orilla (MacLean) Mixer.

Growing up in Tuftonboro and Wolfeboro, Doug attended local schools, including a then-new Kingswood High School, and graduated from North Yarmouth Academy in 1969. In his youth, Doug excelled at football, skiing, and baseball, where he was known for his lethal palmball. Growing up on Lake Winnepesaukee, Doug could often be found on the water, including in his mailboat.

After graduating from prep school, Doug briefly attended Nichols College before entering the workforce, spending the majority of his career in the toy industry. He spent time in both Maine and Massachusetts, working at Boston Baby, Child World, and most recently Toys R Us, from which he retired in 2006 as Store Director. After retirement, Doug spent time co-owning a sandwich shop in Rochester, N.H. and working as a transporter at Lakeview in Effingham, N.H.

In 1981, Doug married his wife, Roxanna, and they eventually settled in Porter. Together they raised seven children and created countless memories.

An avid fisherman, Doug spent many days fishing Winnepesaukee, West Grand Lake, Lobster Lake, Chesuncook, Aziscohos, and many other fishing holes in Maine and New Hampshire. Later in life, Doug was involved in the Porter town planning board, many town committees, Sacopee Valley athletics and football boosters, and enjoyed going on drives to places like Screw Auger Falls. Doug was a talented artist and terrific storyteller. He was always happy to tell a story to anyone willing to listen. Doug's greatest pastime was watching his children and grandchildren play sports.

Douglas is survived by his beloved wife of 44 years, Roxanna; children, Jessica Mixer of Porter, M.E., Amanda Mixer and husband, Jory Bailey of Silver Lake, N.H., Tegan Mixer and partner, Troy Peavey of Raymond, M.E., Nicholas Moulton and fiancée, Molly Lydigsen of Port Orange, F.L., Lane Melanson and partner, Joshua Guptill of Baldwin, M.E., Carla Wakefield and husband, Michael of South Hiram, M.E., and Duncan Mixer of Portland, M.E.; grandchildren, Boone, Natalie, Dodge, Cameron, Allison, Sage, Royal, Abel, River, and one grandson on the way; cherished sisters, Mardy Bogar and husband, John of Farmington, M.E., and Judy Stockman and partner, David of Wolfeboro, N.H.; Roxanna's brother, Jeffrey Snipe and sister, Georgina Moran; as well as many cousins, nieces, nephews and dear friends.

Doug was predeceased by parents, John and Orilla Mixer; and his sister, Joan Mixer.

A memorial service will be held on April 5, 2025 at 1 p.m. at Melvin Village Community Church in Tuftonboro, N.H., to be followed by a celebration of life at Purity Spring Resort in Madison, N.H. If you wish to send flowers, please send to 14 School Street, Porter, M.E.
